Call Number Browse

The University of Delaware Library uses Library of Congress call numbers to locate books in the library. If you have a call number and would like to find the title of the book that it references, follow the steps below:

1. Put your cursor over Research Tools on the library homepage, and select Call Number Browse.

2. Type the call number in the search box at the top of the screen and press enter.
Another way to search for a book title using the call number is to click Advanced Search on the Library Home page and go through the following steps:

1. Click Advanced Search on the Library Home Page.

!Advanced Search on University of Delaware Library

2. Put your cursor over University of Delaware Library. Select Call Number Browse, and enter the call number in the search box that appears.

!Call Number Browse on University of Delaware Library